PRIMARY TRIP SPONSOR FORM

This form should be completed by private entities offering to provide travel or reimbursement for travel to House Members, officers, or employees under House Rule 25, clause 5. A completed copy of the form (and any attachments) should be provided to each invited House Member, officer, or employee, who will then forward it to the Committee together with a Traveler Form at least 30 days before the start date of the trip. The trip sponsor should NOT submit the form directly to the Committee. The Committee Web site (ethics.house.gov) provides detailed instructions for filling out the form.

NOTE: Willful or knowing misrepresentations on this form may be subject to criminal prosecution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1001. Failure to comply with the Committee's Travel Regulations may also lead to the denial of permission to sponsor future trips.

1. Sponsor (who will be paying for the trip): _____
American Enterprise Institute
2. I represent that the trip will not be financed (in whole or in part) by a registered federal lobbyist or foreign agent (signify that the statement is true by checking box): ☐
3. Check only one: I represent that:
 - a. the primary trip sponsor has not accepted from any other source funds intended directly or indirectly to finance any aspect of the trip ☒ or
 - b. the trip is arranged without regard to congressional participation and the primary trip sponsor has accepted funds only from entities that will receive a tangible benefit in exchange for those funds ☐ or.
 - c. the primary trip sponsor has accepted funds from other source(s) intended directly or indirectly to finance all or part of this trip and has enclosed disclosure forms from each of those entities. ☐If "c" is checked, list the names of the additional sponsors: _____
4. Provide names and titles of ALL House Members and employees you are inviting. For each House invitee, provide an explanation of why the individual was invited (include additional pages if necessary):

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your and your spouse's proposed trip to Jackson, Wyoming, scheduled for August 12 to 15, 2018, sponsored by the American Enterprise Institute.

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Susan W. Brooks
Chairwoman

Mark Walker (R-NC) Better domestic policy is needed to tackle America's complex challenges. How are our political parties evolving to meet these challenges? Join us for a discussion with elected leaders to learn about Washington's changing landscape, the legislative achievements of the 115th Congress, and the policy priorities for the remainder of this Congress and beyond.
9:15–10:15 a.m.	Morning Sessions Michael Hayden Graham Wood John Yoo Moderator: Frederick W. Kagan	Ballroom A, Four Seasons How Can We Win the War on Terror? It has been more than a decade and a half since the terrorist attacks of 9/11. And although we have seen great strides in places like Iraq—such as this year's democratic elections—the war on terror is far from over. From the Islamic State's rise in Iraq and Syria to the myriad groups plaguing the Horn of Africa to the resurgence of al Qaeda, the challenges to the global order have not diminished. What, then, can the US and its allies and partners do to tip the scales? What are we willing to do? What is acceptable to the American people? And can we ultimately win the war on terror?
10:30–11:30 a.m.	Jeffrey Frankel Carmen M. Reinhart Kevin Walsh Moderator: Michael R. Strain	Ballroom A, Four Seasons The Next Economic Crisis The recovery from the Great Recession has lasted a long time. Economic recoveries do not die of old age, but the seeds of the next recession are often planted while the economy is growing. What is the state of the economy? Where are the storm clouds, both in the US and abroad? Will the next recession be another crisis? Join our panel of experts to discuss how long the expansion will last and how they think it might end.

1:15–2:30 p.m.	Optional Seminar Session Leon Aron	Ballroom A, Four Seasons The Putin Doctrine After 18 years in the Kremlin, Vladimir Putin has been crowned for yet another six-year "term." Of course, "term" is a misleading duration marker. By every indicator, Putin will rule Russia until he is ousted or dead. Given his healthy lifestyle and vigorous exercise regimen (and barring a catastrophic illness), the latter seems unlikely any time soon; the former is highly improbable. Where is Putin going to take Russia? This is among the most important questions for US national security: the behavior of another nuclear superpower, which is now also the self-proclaimed "global counterbalance" to the United States.

How will President Trump's approval ratings and the economy affect the midterms? How will the political landscape affect legislative goals over the next two years? Join us as some of the nation's leading political analysts break it all down.
9:15–10:15 a.m.	Morning Sessions Lynn Aron Zack Cooper Richard Goldberg Chris Stewart Moderator: Nicholas Eberstadt	Ballroom A, Four Seasons Do Sanctions Work? Iran, Russia, and North Korea The US has long used sanctions to rein in and punish the world's most hostile and dangerous regimes. But a quick review of those sanctions, whether against Iran, China, North Korea, Russia, Cuba, or Pakistan, reveals a mixed tale at best. This panel examines three of the most destabilizing regimes—Iran, Russia, and North Korea—and asks whether sanctions really work. Are they a tool or an end in and of themselves? Tactic or strategy? Have sanctions ever delivered?

What were the most important decisions? What is on deck for the 2018–19 term, and what are the key legal issues in play? What are the implications of Justice Anthony Kennedy's retirement?

Many commentators have drawn parallels between the popular unrest that led to Brexit in the UK and the election of Donald Trump in the US. But while the Republican Party has largely united itself with Trump's agenda since the 2016 election, British Conservatives are beleaguered by internal divisions and a lack of a unifying vision of the purpose and terms of Brexit, as events in just the past few weeks have shown. What needs to happen if Britain hopes to strengthen its global position over the long haul? What does British sovereignty look like in a post-Brexit world? What is the future of the Populist movement that led to Brexit? Join us as we discuss these questions and consider the future of the special relationship.
